

BISHOP CONFERS DEGREES JUNE 1

The Most Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, D.D., J.C.D., Auxiliary Bishop of St. Augustine, will confer degrees at the graduation exercises on Wednesday evening, June 1, at 8 p. m. in Cor Jesu Chapel.

The program will open with the processional "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar. Following the processional, the Cor Jesu Choir will present three selections: Ecce Sacerdos, Singenberger; Laudate Dominum, Grassi; and Emitte Spiritum, Schuetky.

The graduation address will be given by the Rev. James J. McLarny, O.P., Ph.D., from St. Joseph Priory, Somerset, Ohio. Following the address the Rev. Cyril W. Burke, O.P., will present the candidates to His Excellency for the conferring of the degrees. There are 28 graduates.

Cor Jesu Choir will sing Jesu Rex Admirabilis by Palestrina, preceding Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The ceremony will close with the choir singing O Sacrum Convivium, Polleri; Tantum Ergo, Tappert; and Te Deum, traditional.

Student Leaders Convene Here

Student directors of the joint convention of FSGA and FIPA held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week are, from left: Carol Lewis, press chairman; Mary Jane Mills, secretary-treasurer, and Joyce Nolan, general convention chairman. Miss Nolan is the newly elected student body president of Barry College.

Barry College was host last week to a joint convention of Florida Student Government Association and Florida Intercollegiate Press Association held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Delegates from Florida colleges and universities met to exchange views on aims and methods of student government and college publications. Barry students in charge of arrangements are Joyce Nolan, junior class president and newly elected student body president; Mary Jane Mills, senior class president and editor of TORCH AND SHIELD and Carol Lewis, editor of ANGELICUS.

Guest speakers scheduled for various sessions of the convention were the Rev. Cyril Burke, O.P., chaplain and professor of philosophy at Barry, who opened the first general assembly Friday; Luther Evans, sports writer for the Miami HERALD; Kay Murphy, Miami HERALD staff writer; Joyce Voelkner, fashion editor of Miami DAILY NEWS; Dr. Edward R. Annis, prominent Miami physician, who spoke at a banquet in Calaroga dining hall.

Speaking on phases of color photography were Leander Strandt of Engravers Inc., and Ronald Thibedeau, local photographer. Details of printing were discussed by Forrest Lloyd, executive manager for Printing Industry of Greater Miami, and Johnny Fryckman, vice president of Fryckman-Jennings Advertising Agency.

Workshops devoted to such topics as yearbooks and college publications, the honor system, advertising student government activities and building spirit in college activities occupied the delegates' time on Friday.

A joint session of FSGA and FIPA congress were planned for Saturday.

Registration of delegates was held Thursday in the Rotunda.

Mary Crowned Queen of May

On the first Sunday of May, Barry sodalists honored Mary, Queen of Heaven, in the traditional May crowning ceremony in Cor Jesu Chapel.

The student body, in white dresses, sang "Oh Mary, we crown thee with blossoms today" as Sodality prefect Evelyn Howard placed the crown on Mary's statue.

Her court, wearing pastel formals, was made up of the other sodality officers and the committee chairmen: Colette Currier, Vivian Decker, Veronica Barry, Isabel Aguilera, Mary Alice Droze, and Patricia Young.

Prefect and sodalists then renewed their Act of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the ceremony.

World Sodality Day

As president of the Southeastern Sodality deanery, Colette Currier crowned Mary's statue in the local World Sodality Day ceremony held Mother's Day in Bayfront Park.

Prior to the crowning ceremony, Barry sodalists joined parish and high school sodalities in the May Day procession from Gesu to Bayfront Park.

The rosary was offered for world peace and the Act of Consecration renewed.

The ceremony closed with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Sodality Reception

Four Barry girls were received into the Sodality of our Lady at a simple ceremony in Cor Jesu Chapel on April 26.

Alicia Cruz-Ayala, Norma Navares, Jan Niedhawk and Mary Jane Mills merited sodality diplomas and medals, climaxing two months of preparatory study.

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the reception with Rev. Cyril Burke, O.P., officiating.

Dean Elected to NCEA Board

Sister M. Dorothy, O.P., was elected to serve on the National Executive Board of the National Catholic Education Association during the 46th annual convention in Philadelphia, Apr. 19-22.

Sister Dorothy also served as chairman of the Southern Regional College Division.

Sister Mary Jane, O.P., attended the meeting with Sister Dorothy. "The Relation of Government, Religion and Education" was the general theme of the convention.

Among the famous Catholic educators who addressed the 8,000 delegates were the Rev. Frank Gartland, C.S.C., of Notre Dame, Ind., and Dr. R. J. Deferrari of Catholic University, Washington.

Also on the program were special departmental meetings for representatives of seminaries, colleges, universities, secondary and elementary schools.

Another convention attended by Sister Dorothy was the annual meeting of the Delta Epsilon Sigma, National Catholic Honor Society.

On May 5, 6 and 7, Sister Dorothy, accompanied by Sister Mary Ann, O.P., attended a meeting of the Florida Teacher Education Advisory Council in DeLand.

Sister Dorothy participated in a panel discussion, "Basic Factors in Education of Elementary Teachers."

The students and faculty of Barry College wish to extend sincere sympathy to Mrs. Todd Sloane on the death of her mother.

Social Weekend Fetes Seniors

One of the main events on the calendar for May is the social weekend. It is the first time a big weekend has ever been held on campus and reports are that exciting plans are being made by committee members. The weekend will include the junior-senior prom, which will be Saturday, May 21, in Stella Matutina Hall. The theme of the prom, Blue Rain, will be carried out in the decorations.

In charge of the gala weekend May 20-22, are the vice-presidents and social chairmen from the freshman, sophomore and junior classes. Committee members include: Velma Bodee, social chairman of the junior class and general chairman of the weekend; Veronica Barry, junior class vice-president; Trinalee Deperman, sophomore social chairman; Betty Kerby, sophomore class vice-president; Evelyn Fedele, freshman social chairman; Margaret Conlon, freshman class vice-president; Joan Coleman, decoration chairman; Erla Messerly, refreshment chairman; and Alice Depenbrock, ticket chairman.

Activities surrounding the prom will be an informal dance Friday night, picnics, tennis matches and swimming parties. Each class is sponsoring one of the activities to be given in honor of the seniors.

Arrangements have been completed for guests from out of town to stay at the Sir William Hotel.

Joyce Nolan First President Of Student Body

Joyce Nolan, junior class president, was elected student body president on Tuesday, May 3. Next year Joyce will be chairman of the Student Council.

Joyce, as well as being junior class president, was vice-president of her freshman class and president in her sophomore year. She is originally from Cincinnati, but is now a resi-

Barry Adds Nursing Course

Dean of the Sancta Maria school of nursing of Barry College is Sister Mary Jane, O.P., instructor of science and mathematics here. The new school will provide collegiate training on campus and professional experience at St. Mary's Hospital in West Palm Beach.

Upon the completion of the four years course, the candidate will be graduated with a B.S. degree and will be prepared to take the state board examinations for an R.N. Of these four years students will spend two years and three summers in West Palm Beach.

In order that all requirements for the adequate training of student nurses be met, recommendations have been obtained from the Florida State Board of Examiners for Nurses in regard to course requirements and clinical experience.

It is hoped that the college program will contribute to the needs of Public Health services throughout the state.

Students having the required one year college preparation course may enter the new nursing school June 6. Registration of qualified high school graduates will be held Sept. 22.

dent of Miami. She was mistress of ceremonies at the Water Ballet.

Other girls who were eligible for election were: Velma Bodee, Caroline Lewis, Molly Lorms, and Alice Depenbrock.

Upstage . . .
Downstage

May, with thoughts of graduation and the end of classes, is here at last, and with it also the close of the college drama season.

This year in Miami the season ends on a high pitch, for both collegiate drama groups, that of Barry and of the University of Miami, are presenting works of Moliere.

Barry players will work with the Gesu Drama Guild men for the last time this year in "Les Precieuses Ridicules," or "The Pretentious Young Ladies," being given May 16, 17, 18, on the college campus. Sister Mary Trinita, O.P., head of the Barry drama department is directing the play.

"The Miser," especially adapted with melodies and dancing for the University's Ring, is directed by Dr. Charles W. Philmour, associate director of drama at the University. It will run through May 28.

Moliere's plays, written for an arena type stage, presented no staging problem for the Ring. Difficulties arose for the Barry group, however, until the Rotunda, especially arranged with circular rows of seats, was decided upon as the place of presentation.

Both productions will be done in period costumes of the late 17th century.

The Barry-Gesu production finds Shirley Friske and Jackie Koop in the leading feminine roles, with Keith Shelley, Paul Kroah, and Bill Grefe in the male leads.

Both girls are members of the Barry Playhouse. Shirley is remembered for her portrayal of Aunt Bernarde in "Song of Bernadette," while Jackie has delighted children's audiences this season with her comedy portrayals in various playhouse fairy tale dramas.

Others in the cast include Betty La Calle, Joan O'Brien, Kay Justin, Joe Sauer, Shannon Page, Bob DeNisco and Lester Halsema.

The University's "Miser" is Batchelor Owen, a graduate student at the University. Others in the cast include Terry Crager, Robert Sacker, Montgomery Stuart, Hilda Cordish, Hal Vaughn, and Jeanne Marie Lyons, a former Barry student who is appearing in her first role with the Ring.

A.A.T.S.P. Meet
At St. Patrick's

The semi-annual meeting of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese was held at Saint Patrick's club rooms, Miami Beach, Apr. 23.

Sister Mary Jean, O.P., president of the Southeastern Florida chapter, gave the address of welcome to teachers, representing Palm Beach, South Broward, Dade, and Monroe counties.

Dr. Graydon S. Deland, secretary-treasurer of AATSP and member of the Florida State University faculty, lectured on "Your Association, its Aims, and What it is Doing With Your Help."

Dr. R. S. Bogs, professor at the University of Miami, spoke on "The Hero in the Caribbean Folk Tale."

Miss Eloise Patterson, and Miss Norma Nevares, president of the Spanish Club of Barry College, presented talks on students from Latin America.

Spanish dances were performed by students of Barry College, and luncheon followed the official session.

Professor and Mrs. Robert Whitehouse were guests of Barry College at dinner Saturday evening Apr. 23 and were entertained by Sister Mary Jean, O.P. and several Latin American students.

Graciela and Magdelana Alaniz gave their interpretation of the bambuco. Bertha Lauredo and Felisa Cobo joined them in doing the Raspa. Alicia Cruz-Ayala was the piano accompanist.

Bon Voyage
Barryites!

By CLARE ANN KLEIN '52

Next year there should be some wonderful tales of the "old world" at Barry College, since Carol Lewis, Nancy Cassin, and Isabella Ruffolo plan to spend part of this summer vacation touring abroad.

Nancy promises to return to Barry next year filled with wonderful tales of "Gay Paree" and other places.

Miss Lewis leaves for Switzerland July 1 by boat and intends to travel throughout that country, England, France, and Italy. Being an English major, she is eagerly looking forward to her visits to Chillon, Stratford-on-Avon, Windsor Castle, and Canterbury.

Miss Virginia Coburn, Salem College, N. C., class of '49, a friend of Miss Lewis, will accompany her on the trip.

Miss Cassin plans to see as much as possible of England, Ireland, Scotland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, France, Germany, and the Netherlands during her nine weeks tour of Europe. At present she is enjoying the experience of packing all the necessities for the trip into three allotted grips.

Nancy will be accompanied by her parents. To her, June 15 cannot come soon enough, as the glorious Queen Elizabeth will set sail from New York on that date.

Miss Ruffolo plans to leave for Paris on July 15. She intends to be in the famous fashion center for the summer style shows of designers from all parts of the world. In the fall she will take over an executive position with the Ruffolo Blouse, Inc.

She will also travel throughout Rome and Naples spending some time with a cousin who attends the University of Bologna. Isabella and Carol will have a get-together in Rome to compare notes on their travels.

Isabella and her father will make the tour together. They plan to return to New York on the 15th of August.

SCIENCE CLUB
DISCUSSES TV

The last program of the Albertus Magnus Science Club in April was concerned with television, its advantages, disadvantages, terminology and mechanics.

Those participating in the program were: Mary Kay Marelli, who related the history of television; Rolande Gonthier, who explained the mechanics of T V; Dolores Fiorentino, who presented terminology used in T V; Madeline DeChiaro, who mentioned the problems that might be confronted in television and Rosemary Gargano, who proposed to the group five major problems that might arise in purchasing a T V set.

After this series of illustrative presentations and explanations, the topic was open to the floor for further discussion.

DAWN COMES
AFTER 10

ACT I
Scene I

Characters: Jane and Anne.

Time: 8:30 p.m. any study evening.

Place: A room on Barry College campus.

Jane: Oh, me, I'm already tired and it has only been an hour since I started studying. Can't you turn that radio a little louder and take my mind off this stuff?

Anne: Do you want the whole school to hear it? Sh! I hear that "jingle jangle"! and patter of little feet.

Jane: Has she gone? Please let me hear, too.

Anne: Connie and Mary are having a party about 10:30 and they want us to come down. The last time we went to one of their parties we came back drenched from having to hide in their drippy shower. Sister asked me the next day if I was catching a cold, or if I had hay fever. You know, I think she appears to know more than she appears to know.

Jane: We wouldn't have had to hide if you hadn't dropped the jar of peanut butter on the bathroom floor. Let's go, but please don't be so clumsy this time.

SCENE II

Characters: Jane, Anne, Connie, and Mary.

Time: 10:30 p. m. the same night.

Place: Another room in the same building.

Connie: Sh! I don't think Sister has gone to bed, yet. For goodness sakes, Mary, keep the flashlight covered with the cloth.

Jane: Hush! I heard the beads!

(Silence)

Mary: I was thinking. What are we gaining by all this "secrecy", besides pounds?

Anne: Since you mention it, I guess nothing, except a little satisfaction that we are "getting away" with something we aren't supposed to do. Fun, huh?

Connie: Really and truly, we aren't what you would call "getting away with anything", because I am sure all the Sisters know of these after light parties. They probably remember that they broke a few rules themselves, when they were in school and know that we will come to our senses sooner or later.

Jane: Maybe that is why we haven't been caught.

Anne: Let's clean up and go to bed,

Angelicus

BKK Observes
Latin Week

Beta Kappa joined in the national celebration of Latin Week Apr. 25-29. Bulletin boards were decked with pictures and phrases characterizing classic life. Throughout the entire week, exhibits were on display in the library, rotunda, and class rooms. The mythology class participated by putting their scrapbooks on display.

The project was highlighted by the annual Roman banquet. The tables were decorated with cornucopias filled with bougainvillea and the menus were in scroll form. A place card resembling a Roman chariot was at the place of each member of the club. All members were attired in togas and official wreaths.

The co-chairmen of the decorating committee were Joyce Browne and Shirley Jean Wright. Pat Young was in charge of the classroom decorations. After dinner the traditional skit of "Pyramus and Thisbe" was portrayed in pantomime. Those participating in the skit were: Mary Jo Carey, Betty Rice, Mary Lou Connelly, Nancy Cassin, Dorothy Hoff, Rolande Gonthier, and Mary Alice Droze. Joan Weed was the narrator, as well as director of the playlet.

and tomorrow night we can shock Sister by being in bed by 10.

Jeanne Kathryn Pernod, junior, became Mrs. Paul Anthony Leischen Friday, Apr. 12, at 4 p. m.

For her wedding in Gesu church Jeanne wore an informal frock of champagne lace and a corsage of white roses.

Miss Virginia Mitchell, sophomore, was maid of honor. She was dressed in blue organdy, with a corsage of pink roses.

After a honeymoon on Miami Beach, the newlyweds are making their home at 8050 N. Miami Ave.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Alexander Pernod of Chicago, were present for the ceremony. Mr. Leischen's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Nickolas Leischen, Sr., of Elmhurst, L. I. They also came south for the wedding.

A large number of the Barry girls attended the ceremony. Afterwards a private party was given for the couple at the Garden Restaurant on the Trail.

Thimble Theatre Presents the Graduates - - by Jeanne Leischen '50

Emilia Gloria Arnoldson
B.S.

Havana, Cuba, is social chairman of her class, and chairman of the Social Board, as well as a member of the House Committee, the Student Council, the Tertiaries, the Sodality, the Kappa Kappa and Lambda Sigma. The success of the senior social activities this year is great due to Emilia's cheerful direction.

Mary Barbara Baker
A.B.

Hammonton, N. J., is majoring in English. She is a member of the Sodality, C. C. D. Dark heavy braids and a cheery smile go well with Mary Barbara's sudden flashes of humor.

Elaine Heilos
B.S.

Spring Lake, N. J., is majoring in dietetics. While she is active with ANGELICUS, the Tertiaries, the Science Club, and the Spanish Club, her influence is felt most in the Athletic Association, of which she is president.

Alma Iris Ramirez
B.S.

Puerto Rico, is a home economics major minoring in Spanish and philosophy. She belongs and is vice-president of the Santa Rosa Spanish club. Those who know Alma realize that beyond her apparent shyness there is a pleasing and buoyant personality.

Carmen Senghaas
B.S.

Everglades, Fla., is chairman of the House Council and was treasurer of her class in her junior year. She is a member of the Science Club, the Sodality and the Florida Club. Carmen, little old Everglades City is known for you.

Maria Dolores Simonpietri
A.B.

Miami, is originally from Puerto Rico. She is an outstanding member of the Playhouse, the Spanish Club, and the Florida Club. Something new has been added—a solitaire on her third finger, left hand.

Joyce Lillian Browne
B.S.

Fort Lauderdale, is majoring in biology. On the side, she is vice-president of the Athletic Association, and treasurer of the Science Club. She sings in the Cor Jesu Choir and is a member of the Florida Club and the Spanish Club. An excellent swimmer, Joyce has taken part in several water ballets.

Evelyn Howard
B.S.

Greenville, S. C., is prefect of the Sodality and president of the Student Council. Howie is a member of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. She was also junior class president. Many activities have not interfered with her popularity rating and scholastic standing.

Irene Elvera Raywood
A.B.

Miami, is a music major. Irene is also secretary of her class. It took her two years to decide to go to school in her home town, but she finally left St. Mary's of Notre Dame to come to Barry.

Mary Louise Smith
A.B.

Fort Lauderdale, is treasurer of the Spanish Club and has held offices on the House Council and House Committee. She belongs to the Science Club and Florida Club, and is majoring in Spanish with minors in social science and education. Mary Lou is thought to be a personification of the saying, "pretty as a picture."

Charlotte Colette Carrier
A.B.

Detroit, Mich., is vice-prefect of the Sodality, secretary of the Student Council, business manager of the TORCH AND SHIELD, and a member of Delta Epsilon Sigma National Honor Society, and Lambda Sigma. Colette is never too busy to be friendly, despite all her offices.

Carol Kreienbaun Lewis
A.B.

Whiteville, N. C., is editor of the ANGELICUS, a staff member of the TORCH AND SHIELD, and a Tertiary. For a while, Carol's home town's existence was doubted in some quarters, so she produced a newspaper bearing the town's name as proof.

Maria Luisa Rivera
A.B.

Puerto Rico, is majoring in history, with mathematics and French as minors. She is a member of the Mission Council and Athletic Association. You'll see her often at the post office or out on the tennis courts.

Mary Doherty Tafel
A.B.

Louisville, Ky., arrived at Barry for her senior year. She has been busy in that year with the Sodality, Our Lady's Committee, the Spanish Club, and TORCH AND SHIELD, of which she is president.

Vivian Adaline Decker
A.B.

Miami Beach, is president of the senior class, treasurer of the Sodality, advertising manager of the TORCH AND SHIELD, a member of Kappa Gamma Pi National Honor Society, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Lambda Sigma, and several campus clubs. A hard worker and a good sport, Vivian is an outstanding member of her class.

Mary Jane Mills
A.B.

Miami Beach, is president of her class, first vice-president of the Student Council, editor of the TORCH AND SHIELD, a member of Kappa Gamma Pi National Honor Society, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Lambda Sigma, the Tara Singers, and several other campus clubs. Mary Jane is one very busy girl, but somehow everything gets done.

Isabella Ruffolo
B.S.

Jamaica, N. Y., is majoring in home economics and minoring in philosophy and English. She is a member of Beta Kappa Kappa, the Science Club, and the Spanish Club. Isabella has a faculty for losing things—excepting her temper, of course.

Lucia Jean Vallejo
B.S.

Asheville, N. C., is Campus Queen and a member of the Social Life Board. She has held offices in Our Lady's Committee, and has spent four years with the Spanish Club. Lucia is also a member of the Deep South Club. "We hope that your reign has been glorious."

Mary Ellen DeDominicis
B.S.

Miami, is majoring in biology. She is president of the Florida Club, Priestess of the Tertiaries, and she has held offices in the Mission and the Eucharistic Committees, as well as the Playhouse. Mary Ellen taught school in Vero Beach just for practice.

Norma Iraida Nevares
A.B.

Puerto Rico, has been at Barry for two busy years. She is literary editor of the TORCH AND SHIELD, Membership in the Tertiaries, and presidency of the Spanish Club round out her activities.

Betty Joan Saunders
B.S.

Miami, is treasurer of her class and is in Lambda Sigma. She holds a four year membership in the Florida Club, the Athletic Association and the Sodality. She is majoring in mathematics.

Joan Valerie Weed
B.S.

Miami, is better known as "Weedy." She is art editor of the TORCH AND SHIELD, a member of the Playhouse, Beta Kappa Kappa, the Science Club, and Florida Club. She is also on the staff of ANGELICUS.

Agnes Maria S. Galban
A.B.

Havana, Cuba, is chairman of the Mission Council, a member of the Tertiaries, Beta Kappa, Spanish Club, the Sodality, and the Athletic Association. The question has come up—has Agnes' interest turned to sports—badminton?

Belen de la Caridad Ortega
B.S.

Havana, Cuba, is secretary of the Spanish Club. She also works with Our Lady's Committee. Only a letter a day could make Belen happy, but she usually gets it.

Lola Thacker Saunders
B.S.

North Miami, is majoring in home economics with minors in education and English. Lola has done a fine job of taking care of her class assignments and her home at the same time. Ask her husband and her son!

Patricia Ann Young
A.B.

Sharpsville, Penn., is majoring in Latin and minoring in German, philosophy, and English. Despite this heavy schedule, Pat is a member of Delta Epsilon Sigma and Lambda Sigma, co-chairman of the C. D. D., and chairman of the Eucharistic Committee. If it's first aid or last aid that's needed, everyone turns to Pat.

Kampus Kapers

If there is anyone on campus who has never seen Mary Lou Hogan's horse blanket housecoat, she is really missing something. It has, without a doubt, been the cause of more hysterical incidents than any other thing on campus. The latest adventure of the "mad plaid" is a swim in the pool—with Mary Lou in it, of course. Also, Jean Rathford has a bet with Mary Lou concerning said housecoat. "Lou" has to wear it to the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago where Jean will meet her and collect said bet, or vice versa!—Knowing Mary Lou we hope Jean has her ten dollars with her . . . Jeanne Pernod Leischen is giving Father Burke a little competition. Jeanne also has a bike and she rides it to school.

Warning to all visitors: Beware of the "Bat House" located on Penafort Porch . . . A slip of the accent and who knows? The results could be fatal! Sister Ann Charles sent Pat Aulson (Bostonian) to the kitchen for some LARD. When Pat returned with LYE, Sister was beginning to wonder . . . until she realized that Pat's accent was the cause of the mistake.

When it comes to genius there is nothing like the wisdom of a freshman! Miss Elizabeth Arden advocates a dry skin, and so what do our intelligent frosh??? Why, use starch, of course!

Our Campus Queen now has a real King. And wrapped right around her third finger, left hand too . . . Seems the gals in Maris Stella get a bit hungry at times. But do they go into the Shores like ordinary people and buy something? No, not the sops. They hire a taxi and have hamburgers and limeades delivered right to the door . . .

Isabella Ruffolo has a bad case of losing things. Especially pocketbooks. Of course we realize that comps could have had something to do with the loss of first a billfold and then her purse . . . no comment.

Agnes Galban has gone a little too far in the use of senior privileges. At least the Miami Shores Police think so. Agnes just can't seem to understand why seniors have to stop for red lights . . . Especially when the participants in the water ballet had a police escort to Hollywood and went through five red lights . . . and without a ticket too.

Sally Mobley was slightly humiliated when she called home and got her sixteen year old sister on the phone. Seems Mary Anna wouldn't accept the charges, much to Sally's embarrassment . . . If you saw Catherine Crowe hanging over the second floor railing of Angelicus, don't worry. It wasn't suicide. Cathy merely had to pick the flowers for the water ballet . . .

As we caper into June and holidays, we bid our readers farewell. Until we meet again!

College Is Host To Dade Librarians

The Barry College library staff was host April 22 for the monthly meeting of the Dade County Library Association.

Mrs. Anne McCreary presided at the business session held in the Rotunda. She then introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Charles Brookfield, co-author of the recently published book on Florida, They All Called It Tropical.

Following the meeting, the guests toured the campus and visited the library.

Refreshments were served by Eileen Meyers, Barry assistant librarian, aided by Stephanie Swinich, Mary Alice Droze and Joan Cantrell.

Alumnae Report

Dan Cupid is still working overtime among former Barryites. The latest "victim" to become engaged is Jule Johnston. The lucky man is Don Howell.

Janith Schaefer Roehm visited Barry recently and introduced everyone to her daughter, Julie Ann, who was born on Palm Sunday. Janith is spending some time with her parents in Fort Lauderdale, while preparing to join her husband in Germany.

Barbara Hannon attended the Water Ballet at Barry and tells us her future plans include attendance at a school of Liturgical Music in the north next year and teaching music.

At the June 18th wedding of Janet Athy to Howard Joseph Schuemarker, which will take place in Boston, Mass., Father Burke will be the celebrant. Keep your notebook handy, Father, so that you can give us all the details upon your return!

The 40th Anniversary Edition of the periodical America contained a letter from Helen Charbonneau, a former Barryite now teaching English at the University of Detroit, congratulating the magazine on its 40th Anniversary. Letters from people in different walks of life were selected and Helen's letter was chosen to represent the teaching profession.

While Sister Dorothy and Sister Mary Jane were north for the National Catholic Educational Association Convention, Apr. 19-22, they visited former Barryites. Catherine Dreka is spending her time working in Doctors' Hospital in Washington, D. C. and attending night school. Her sister, Ann, will be received into the Carmelite Order in Mobile, Alabama, this month. Congratulatory and God bless you! Sister Dorothy and Sister Mary Jane also had a long visit with Jane Dexter and Phyllis Gray. Agnes Seifert will graduate in June from Ursuline College for Women in Cleveland, Ohio.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Catherine McNichol on the death of her father. Please remember him in your prayers, alumnae members. —Eileen Meyers.

Spanish Club Sponsors Dance

An informal dance, sponsored by the Spanish Club of Barry College, was held in the social hall April 29.

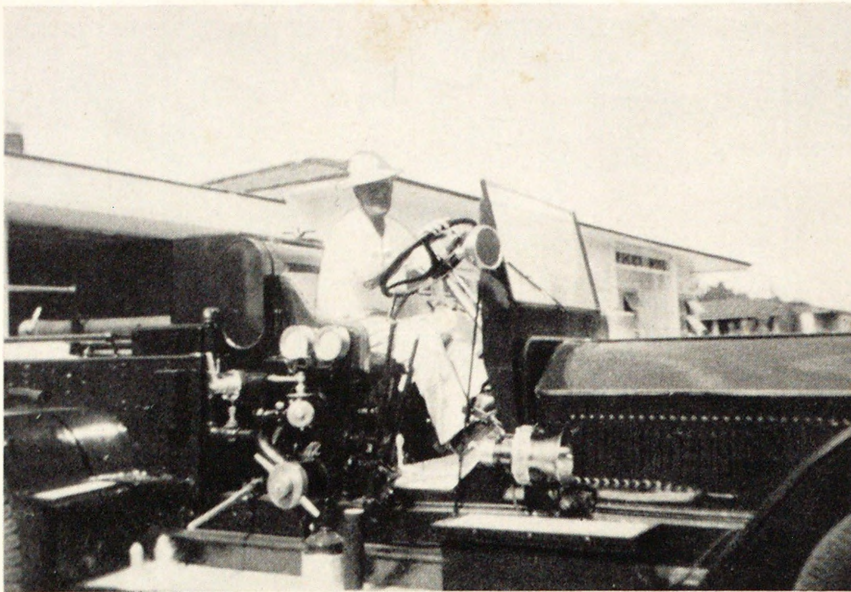

Both Spanish and American music were provided for students and their escorts, and refreshments were served during intermission.

Officers Norma Nevares, Alma Ramirez, Belan Ortega, Agnes Galban and Queen Maria Dolores Simonpietri formed the reception committee.

Gelly Rodriguez, Sylvia Soler, Yolanda Arcila and Nora Urquiola were in charge of tickets.

Refreshments were served by Carmen Aponte, Elena Hernandez, Hadly Mercado and Mila Wirth.

A. A. News "Cotton Hop" is Theme of Dance

This is your A. A. reporter with the latest news in the sports line at Barry.

Now that the ballet is over, the music put away, the mineral oil and lamb's wool discarded, we can all breathe fresh air again. (Chlorine water doesn't seem to have the same reaction.)

This last month is a very busy one for most of us—sending out invitations, taking exams and signing year-books. Nestled deep within this hustle and bustle is the A. A. banquet, May 18. Everyone is invited to come, and they say you shouldn't miss it, because "everyone gets a prize!"

The questions most on our minds are: which class will win the much talked about—and dreamed of—plaque, who will be awarded A. A. cups, and which girl will be dubbed the most athletic and most cooperative in the Athletic Association.

Well, I guess this reporter has finally to say farewell. After the class of '49 departs from Barry in June, and when next September rolls around, remember when you see A. A. it means not only Athletic Association, but also Always Active.

My thanks to all the board members—Joyce Browne, Betty Kerby, Pat Abernethy, Mary Lou Connelly, and Nancy Conine; to Miss Husson, whose spirit always carries us right to the top; and to Sister Thomas Mary, who has shown us all that the Athletic Association is not finished, yet.

"Cotton Hop" was the theme of a dance sponsored by the Florida Club, May 6, from 8 P.M. to 12 P.M.

The Social Hall was decorated for the occasion with rag dolls and plaid patches. Music was furnished by Bobby Joseph and his orchestra.

Bids were in the form of tiny cotton balls to carry out the theme of the dance.

In charge of the dance was Mary Ellen DeDominicis, and committee chairmen under her were: Rita Wielatz, decorations; Ernie Ricou, refreshments; Sally Newton, tickets; Ruth Haberkorn, clean-up.

Shores Interviews End at Fire Dept.

By MARY LOU CONNELLY '51

Do not expect any pity from your reporter merely because this is the final issue of the ANGELICUS for this semester. Oh no, you do not leave our campus without reading the last of Miami Shores interviews.

The new column was started last September with the police department; hence it is only right that we close with the fire department.

Mr. Mack Fisher a fireman is, Softspoken, pipe smokin' Competence and quietness his.

Mr. Fisher, the head of the Shores Fire Department, has trained 2500 men, both military and civilian, in the necessary occupation of fire fighting.

Our Shores station has two pieces of fire equipment: One truck with a 1,000 gallon pump and the other with a 500 gallon a minute pump. The twenty-five volunteers, many of whom are members of the police force, are helped by the invaluable experience of Mr. Fisher's eleven years in this type of work.

The former fire chief of the department in North Miami stated that he had a special interest in our college as he put the windows in the buildings at Barry.

Other members of the Fisher family are a son, 12, and a daughter, 15, both attending school in Miami, and Mrs. Fisher who hails from Connecticut.

When Wright Field in Dayton, Ohio had the tremendous $18,000,000 blaze, Mr. Fisher helped in the task of quelling it.

One wee bit of advice, my fellow school-mates, if you have ever wondered what to do in case of fire. No doubt you have thought of grasping those forbidding axes and hoses encased in glass along the walls. A wiser move would be to go toward the telephone and call our new fire department in the Shores City Hall.
