WE SALUTE . . .

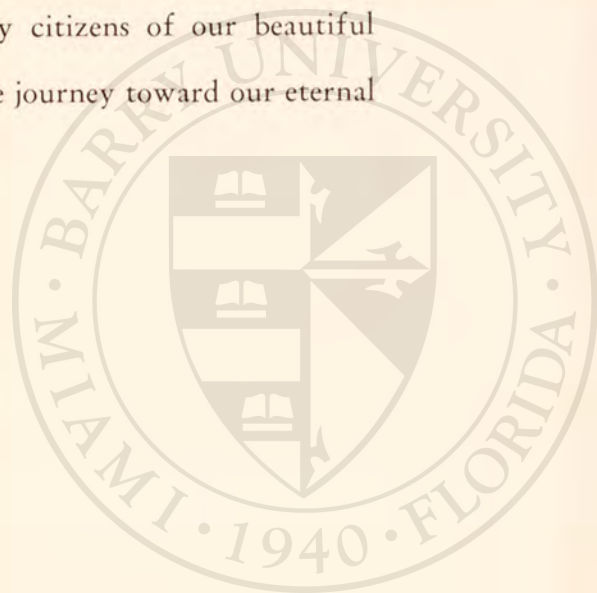

the American flag flying in honor over our campus.
We salute it as a symbol of our beloved country founded on the Catholic principles of authority, justice, and charity.

WE PROFESS . . .

loyalty to God's law, to the pursuit of Truth, and to the development of our God-given powers. By this profession we give the world a right to expect of us the highest and purest citizenship.

WE PRAY . . .

that we may prove worthy citizens of our beautiful land as we pass through it on the journey toward our eternal home in heaven.

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Notre Dame, Indiana

Office of the President

AT

the 107th Annual Commencement Exercises

Friday, August 8, 1952

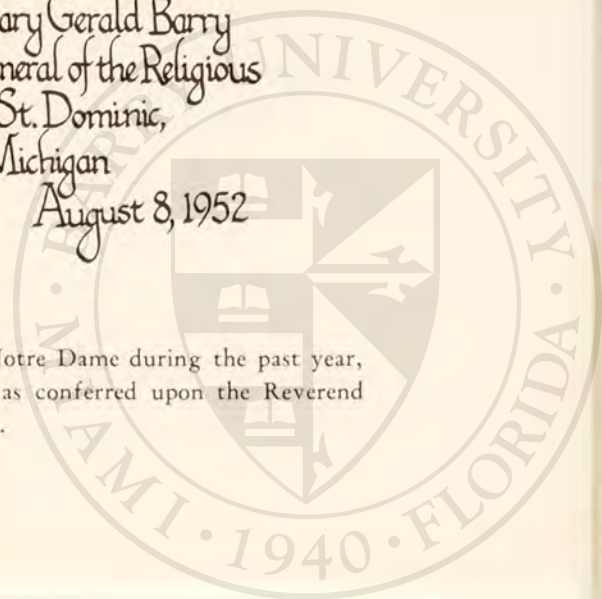

The University of Notre Dame

offers the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, on the remarkable leader of a renowned Sisterhood, a truly eminent woman, whose profound faith, broad vision and intrepid courage have been devoted to the direction and expansion of the great works of her community, whose boundless zeal in the cause of Catholic education and of Catholic welfare has led to the establishment of parochial schools, high schools, colleges and hospitals throughout the United States and beyond, whose art and sagacity of administration have been sustained by a living charity and illumined by a personal charm endearing her to all her own religious daughters and to all who have experienced the spiritual and moral grace of her influence, on

Mother Mary Gerald Barry
Mother General of the Religious Sisters of St. Dominic,
Adrian, Michigan

August 8, 1952

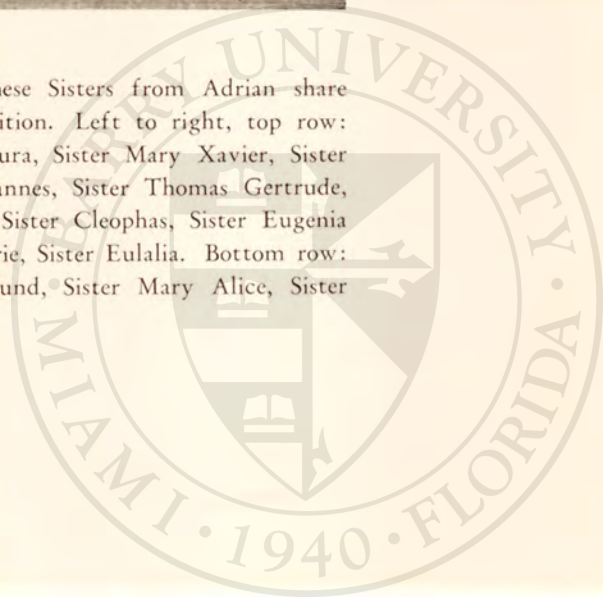

The above citation was read at the University of Notre Dame during the past year, when the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, was conferred upon the Reverend Mother Mary Gerald, O.P., president of Barry College.

Dear Friends,

For the Seniors, it's goodbye! Behind us are four unforgettable years—years of security, joy, good companionship, graces. Difficulties, too, came our way, but we met and conquered them. In this conquest we gained strength for whatever hard things the future might hold.

It's difficult to think of leaving the campus that has been home for so long—Barry the Beautiful. What we have acquired here we can never measure in terms of worldly success. In our hearts we carry away wisdom and love, memories that will live warmly treasured amongst us forever: the cross of Cor Jesu . . . swaying palms . . . indescribably brilliant sunsets . . . the peace of Christ pervading activity and fun.

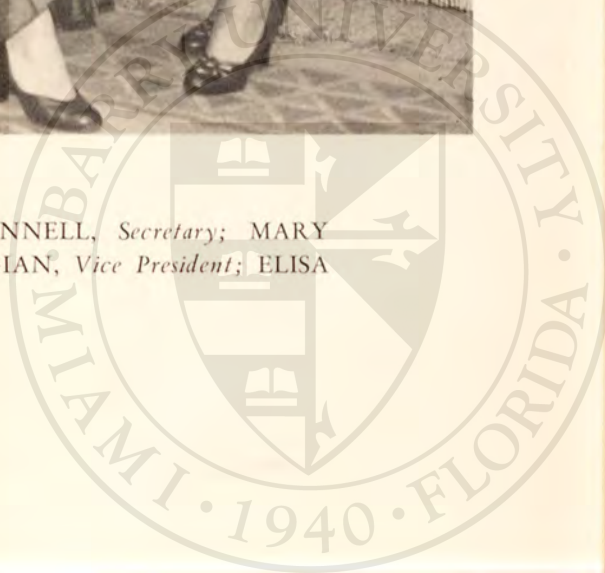

We may not do great things in our lives, but we will do our best, putting theory into practice. Binding us together will be the firm hope that one day the Class of '53 will meet again . . . in heaven . . . still proudly singing, "We're still on top, you see!"

Founders' Day

Each November brings the celebration of Founders' Day, the formal occasion on which faculty and students gather to do honor to those who planned and built Barry College. First among those honored is the Reverend Mother Mary Gerald, O.P., under whose inspiration and guidance the college was instituted. The late Bishop of St. Augustine, the Most Reverend Patrick Barry, gave unstinting encouragement and substantial help to the undertaking. It is after Bishop Barry that the college is named.

The Most Reverend William Barry of Miami Beach has manifested unceasing interest in the development of Barry; and Mr. John G. Thompson, as legal adviser and friend, has from the beginning been associated with its history. These founders exemplify the spirit of faith and sacrifice upon which Barry was erected.

Secretarial Students

The students who have satisfactorily completed the requirements of the secretarial science department are equipped to become successful secretaries and business women.

Their training includes two years of typing and shorthand, accounting and office practice. This business training, combined with the Catholic cultural education which they have received, prepares these young women to assume their responsibilities in all phases of social and economic life, to become Christophers in the market places of the world.

Sodality of Our Lady

Participating in the May Crowning are Rosemary Geyer, Matilde Ramos, Sheila Brown, and Emma Grady.

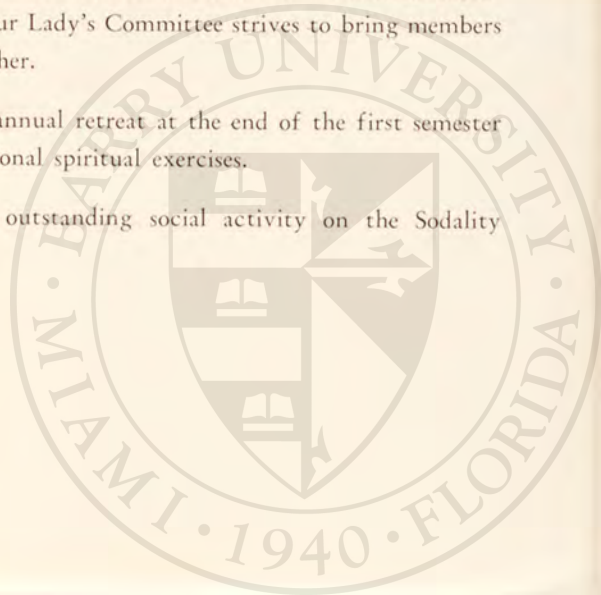

"To Jesus through Mary" . . . the motto of the Sodality and a way of life.

Members of the Sodality strive to foster greater devotion to Christ and His Mother through the Sodality Committees whose particular aims are closely integrated with the principal aim of the Sodality.

The Catholic Truth Committee seeks to introduce Catholic literature into secular schools and libraries; the Eucharistic Committee fosters devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and understanding of the liturgy; Our Lady's Committee strives to bring members of the Sodality closer to our Blessed Mother.

The living rosary in October and the annual retreat at the end of the first semester are two of the Sodalists' important traditional spiritual exercises.

The Blue Valentine Formal was the outstanding social activity on the Sodality calendar for the year.

Sodality Council

Seated: Therese Dempsey, Francis Dougherty, Mary Emma Grady, Loretta McClellan, Shirley Hodge. Standing: Matilde Ramos, Sheila Brown, Kay Wodtke, Rosemary Geyer.

Executive Board

Vice-prefect, Matilde Ramos; Prefect, Sheila Brown; Secretary, Rosemary Geyer; Treasurer, Mary Emma Grady.

Mission Council

Aware of the need for lay support of missionary work, the Mission Council sponsors numerous fund-raising activities throughout the year. Raffles, and the sale of St. Valentine Day hearts are typical Council projects. Both home and foreign mission needs are alleviated through the work of the Mission Council.

Treasurer, Catherine Wodtke; president, Constance Senger; secretary, Shirley Hodge; vice president, Margaret Keith. Faculty moderator: Sister M. Joannes, O.P.

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine

Members of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine participate in Catholic Action by organized catechetical instruction. Barry students who belong to this group promote a knowledge of the true Faith in the minds and hearts of those who are unable to receive such education in their school program.

Albertine Tomits and Florence Krupp, co-chairmen; Parise Oullette, secretary. Faculty moderator: Sister Mary Jane, O.P.

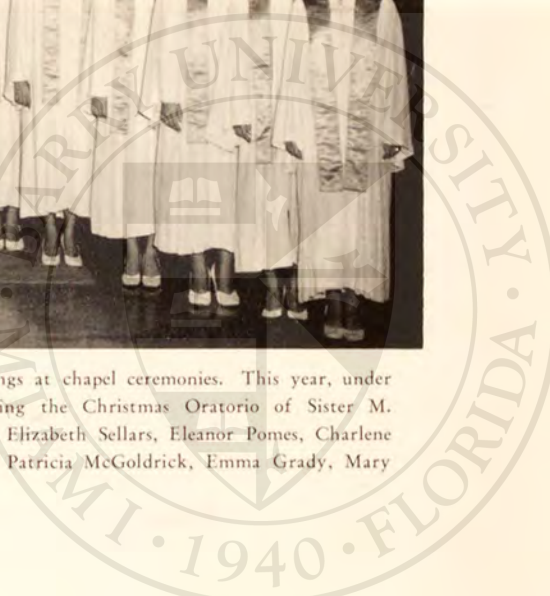

Tertiaries

The Tertiaries are lay persons in the world who have associated themselves with the Third Order of St. Dominic. Through the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin and their various other spiritual duties, these members strive toward perfection. Belonging to the campus Third Order group are Jane Burman, Catherine Friedheim, Raquel Rivera and Francisca Olba. Moderator: Reverend Cyril W. Burke, O.P.

Cor Jesu Choir

This group, organized especially for the performance of liturgical music, sings at chapel ceremonies. This year, under the direction of Sister Maura, the choir joined the Tara singers in presenting the Christmas Oratorio of Sister M. Denise, O.P. Members include Patricia Pellicer, Frances Rost, Patricia Mies, Elizabeth Sellars, Eleanor Pomes, Charlene Jurgenson, Catherine Wodtke, Beth Frost, Carmella Licari, Marie Kersting, Patricia McGoldrick, Emma Grady, Mary Lou Tierney, Barbara Butterfield.

Honor Societies

Delta Epsilon Sigma

To be elected to Delta Epsilon Sigma National Catholic Honor Society a student must maintain a scholastic rating of 2.0. Her character and capabilities must show promise of future achievements. Members this year are Patricia Oak and Elizabeth Demirgian.

Kappa Gamma Pi

Kappa Gamma Pi National Catholic Honor Society requires of its members a 2.3 average, as well as outstanding leadership in extra-curricular activities. Dorothy Newkerk was elected as Barry's 1953 member of this society.

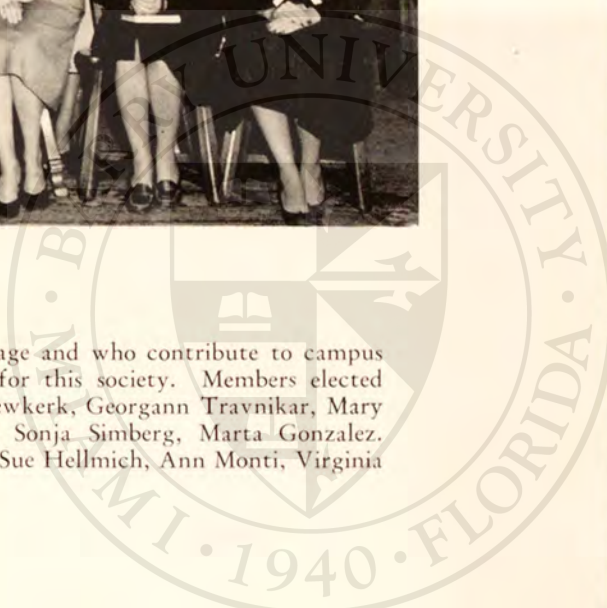

Who's Who

Qualifications for inclusion in Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities are character, scholarship and leadership. Potentiality for eventual service to society and the economic world are also important in the selection of members. Seniors nominated to Who's Who are Dorothy Newkerk, Elizabeth Demirgian, Patricia Oak and Virginia Waters.

Lambda Sigma

Barry College students who maintain a "B" average and who contribute to campus life through cooperation and leadership are eligible for this society. Members elected to the campus honor group are (seated) Dorothy Newkerk, Georgann Travnikar, Mary Emma Grady, Esther Lopez, Elizabeth Demirgian, Sonja Simberg, Marta Gonzalez. Standing: Mary Kurz, Joanne Knoch, Janet Howard, Sue Hellmich, Ann Monti, Virginia Waters, Margaret Coste, Joan Breitenwischer.

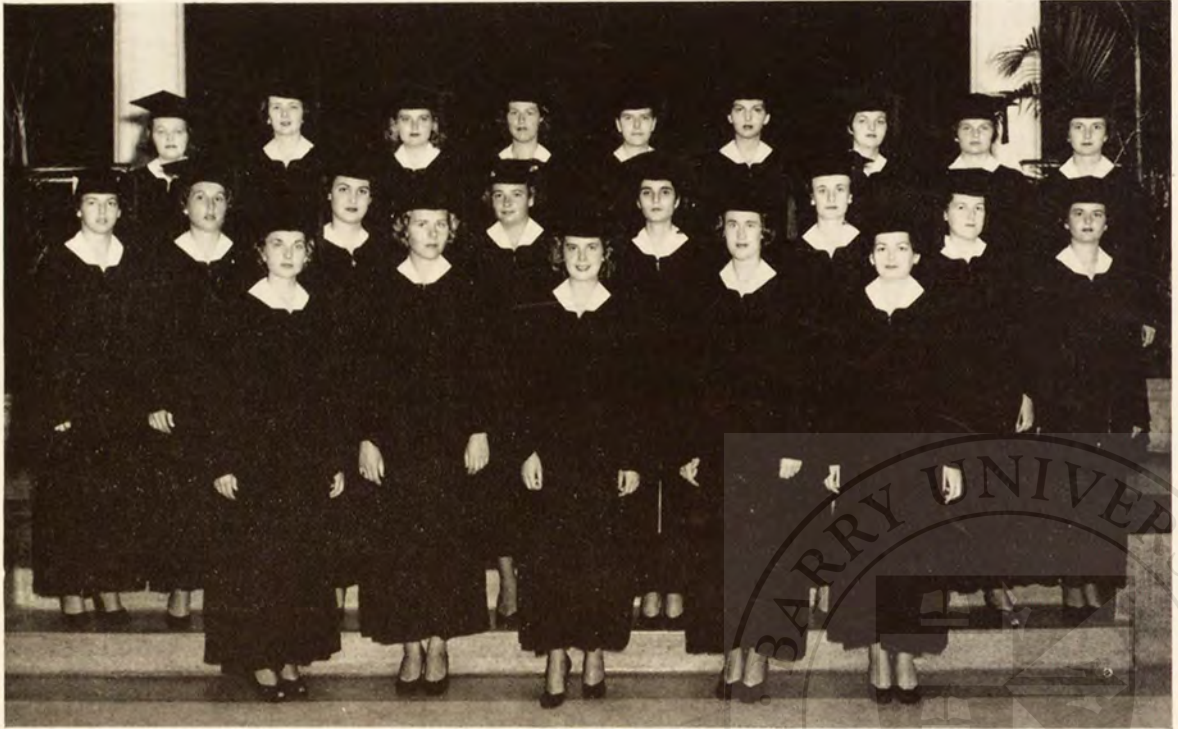

President, Patricia Oak.

Student Council

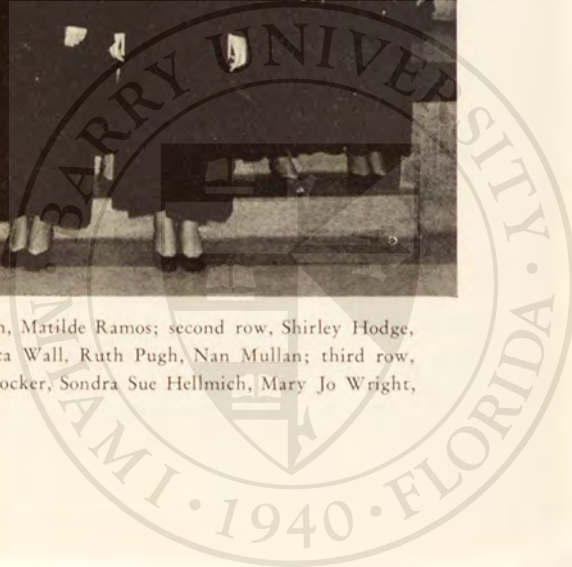

Members of the Student Council work with the faculty to coordinate all student organizations and activities.

Every phase of extracurricular activity on campus is given the attention of the Council. No problem is too great or too small, from the execution of the demerit system to the supervision of the "Torch Porch" clean-up committee.

In its work of coordination and representation, the Student Council has made progress under the able leadership of its president, Patricia Oak.

Social Board

Claire Senger, Sondra Sue Hellmich, Elisa Cartana, Barbara Kuzmick.

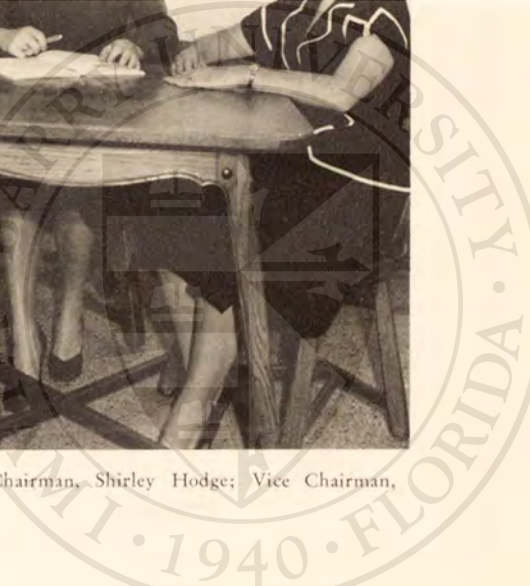

House Council

The Social Board under the leadership of the Campus Queen is comprised of the social chairmen of the four classes and representatives of the major clubs. It coordinates social events on campus. Most important of the activities sponsored directly by this group is the annual Coronation Ball.

The House Council, composed of the chairmen of the residence hall committees and presided over by a general chairman, assists the resident students and the faculty in problems which arise in the dormitories. It is invaluable in maintaining the harmony and efficiency necessary for a homelike atmosphere.

Secretary, Nan Mullan; Chairman, Shirley Hodge; Vice Chairman, Raquel Rivera.

Chatting in the Torch and Shield Press Room are Patricia Huml, Katherine Wodtke, Catherine Jumper, Marta Gonzalez, Mary Rose Scanlon, Anne Morley.

Torch and Shield

WHAT? The campus yearbook, whose name combines the symbols of "Truth" and "Barry College."

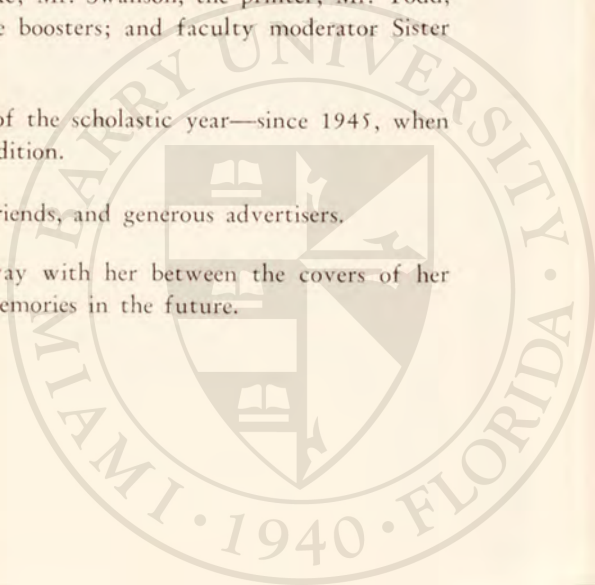

WHERE? Angelicus 214, a room with a lived-in look—cluttered with paste-pots, glossy prints, paper, copy pencils, and staff members in varying degrees of hope and despair.

WHO? Anne Morley (Class of '54), assisted by photographer's assistant Patricia Huml; advertising manager Katherine Jumper; business manager Catherine Wodtke; Mr. Swanson, the printer; Mr. Todd, the engraver; assorted copy writers, car-lenders, typists, morale boosters; and faculty moderator Sister Mary Paul, O.P.

WHEN? All through the year, with production at the end of the scholastic year—since 1945, when the first little paper-covered Torch and Shield began the tradition.

HOW? Through work, prayer, tears, cooperation, interested friends, and generous advertisers.

WHY? To give the Barry girl a bit of her college to carry away with her between the covers of her annual, a source of prideful joy in the present and of happy memories in the future.

Angelicus and Press Club

"Angelicus is the student newspaper, published monthly. The staff members, drafted from the Press Club and journalism classes, are easily identified by the harried look they wear around the fifteenth of the month.

The Press Club is for students interested in journalism. At the meetings, the principles of journalism are discussed and the Angelicus is submitted to a post mortem.

The Angelicus "Angels" are plagued with nightmares in which deadlines, makeup, headlines and typographical errors are the pursuing monsters. They undergo the tortures of deadline days when the copy is slow in reaching perfection and the headlines just won't fit.

But once the copy is done, the proof has been corrected, the pages have been dummied, and the latest issue has been tucked safely into the mail boxes, tranquility and satisfaction take over. For a day, at least, and then the planning for the next issue begins."—Barbara Kuzmick, Angelicus Editor.

Julie Hall, social chairman; Barbara Kuzmick, president; Lee Ann Brocker, secretary-treasurer.

Staff members are Patricia Huml, Shirley Hodge, Ruth Pugh, Isabel Harty, Virginia Waters, Barbara Kuzmick (editor), Constance Baldwin, Joanne Knoch, Rosemarie Brickley, Penelope Estabrook. Sister Mary Xavier is moderator of the Press Club and of the Angelicus.

State Clubs

Each of the State Clubs, as well as the Foreign Students Club, has its own specific aim. Common to all of them, however, is the desire to make campus extra-curricular life active and pleasant. The Saint Patrick's Day dance was an important affair sponsored jointly by these groups in 1953.

Individual clubs hold picnics, beach parties, and roasts. Two important duties are traditionally carried out by the members of the Florida Club each summer and fall. During the long holidays they keep Barry Students in contact with one another through their news letters. In September, members of this club greet incoming new students at the trains, buses and planes.

Impow Club

Members of the Impow Club are, first row: J. Rerucha, G. Travnikar, P. Mies (president), P. Reilly, C. Feak, C. Meade; second row: K. Malone, C. Igel, N. Johnston, J. Brisbin, A. New Englanders are P. Oullette, D. Haggerty, A. Morley (vice president), J. Gannon (president), A. Charpentier, K. Killeen (secretary-treasurer). Moderator: Reverend C. W. Burke, O.P.

Cosmos Club

Cosmos members are E. Leach, C. Senger (secretary), S. Bliss, P. Oak, I. Dempsey, T. Tomits, M. Kurz, W. Kine (president). Moderator: Miss Margaret Husson.

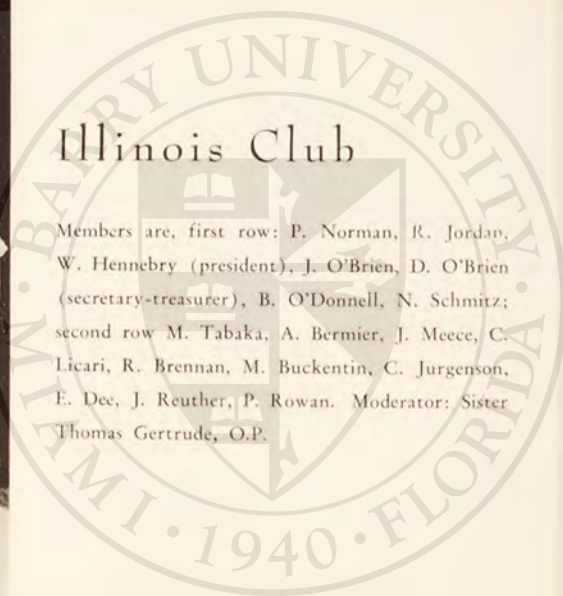

Foreign Students

Club members are M. Pinero, L. Belart, N. Campos, E. Cartana, N. Garcia (president), M. Lloveras (vice president), H. Salomon; second row: S. Nunez, I. Lopez, R. Rivera, M. Gonzalez, A. Acosta, J. Yanes; third row: M. Soto, M. Keith (secretary-treasurer), O. Saldana, E. Lopez, M. Ochoa, M. Pelaez, L. Esquivel; fourth row: P. Lloveras, G. Ehrenberg, M. Roldan. Moderator: Sister Mary Rudolf, O.P.

Illinois Club

Members are, first row: P. Norman, R. Jordan, W. Henneby (president), J. O'Brien, D. O'Brien (secretary-treasurer), B. O'Donnell, N. Schmitz; second row M. Tabaka, A. Bernier, J. Meece, C. Licari, R. Brennan, M. Buckentin, C. Jurgenson, E. Dee, J. Reuther, P. Rowan. Moderator: Sister Thomas Gertrude, O.P.

Spanish Club

Beta Kappa Kappa

Raquel Soldevila, Secretary; Angelita Acosta, Vice President; Noemi García, President; Amelia Tourino, Treasurer.

Loretta McClellan, First Consul; Andrea Zinane, Second Consul.

One of the most active and colorful groups on campus is the Santa Rosa Spanish Club. Composed of both North and Latin Americans, the club fosters many activities in the interest of better relations among the nations in the western hemisphere. Barry College Pan American Day celebration, annually directed by the Spanish Club, holds a prominent place in Miami's observance of this occasion. Faculty moderator: Sister Jean Marie, O.P.

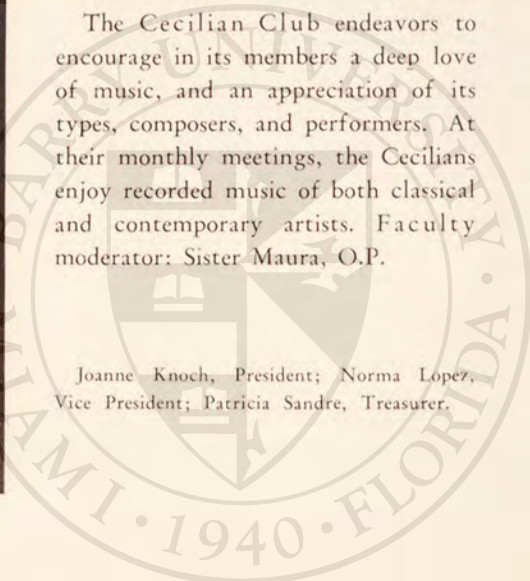

Members of B.K.K. are students of Latin, French or German who wish to promote an understanding and appreciation of the history and culture of these tongues. The year's schedule of programs culminates in the springtime Roman banquet held in Calaroga Hall. Faculty moderator: Sister M. Agnes Cecile, O.P.

Cecilian Club

The Cecilian Club endeavors to encourage in its members a deep love of music, and an appreciation of its types, composers, and performers. At their monthly meetings, the Cecilians enjoy recorded music of both classical and contemporary artists. Faculty moderator: Sister Maura, O.P.

Joanne Knoch, President; Norma Lopez, Vice President; Patricia Sandre, Treasurer.

Sociology Club

Home Economics Club

Beatrice Washbish, Secretary; Marion Petrossi, Vice President; Mary Margaret Reiss, President.

Joanne Rerucha, Vice President; Emma Grady, President; Nancy Johnston, Secretary.

Organized in 1953, the Sociology Club endeavors to bring to its members a broadened knowledge of and interest in the various phases of social work. By means of field trips to social service agencies, and talks by specialists in the work, the club attempts to achieve its purpose. Faculty moderator: Sister M. Elaine, O.P.

The Home Economics Club was organized to make home and family life better understood and appreciated by the students and the community. Its various activities culminate in the annual fashion show, during which members of the clothing class model garments designed and made during the year. Faculty moderator: Sister Eulalia, O.P.

Science Club

In order to establish a wholesome interest in science and its applications to daily living, the Albertus Magnus Science Club arranges programs, field trips, and films during the year. Activities sponsored by this group of scientists find many non-members in attendance. Faculty moderator: Sister Mary Jane, O.P.

Margaret Coste, Secretary; Betty Jo Bostick, President; Ruth Ogden, Treasurer.

Athletic Association

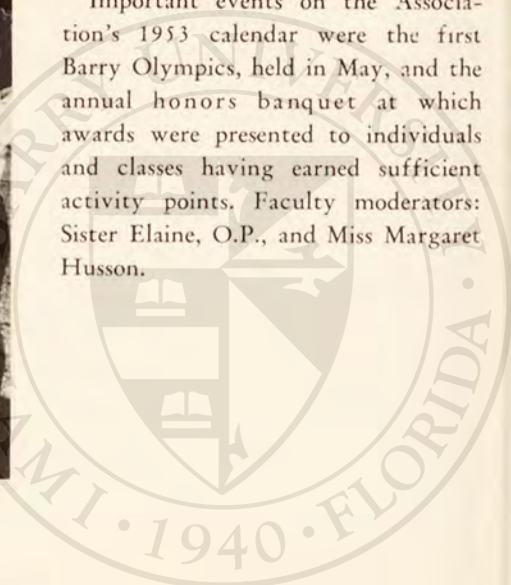

Checking a golf tournament schedule with Miss Husson, above, are A.A. officers: Barbara O'Donnell, secretary; Rosemary Geyer, vice president; Patricia Mies, president; and Mary Emma Grady, treasurer.

Under the guidance of Miss Margaret Husson, instructor in physical education, the Barry College Athletic Association aims to foster interest and develop skill in competitive sports. Inter-class and inter-club games provide opportunity for all students to play their favorite sports.

Important events on the Association's 1953 calendar were the first Barry Olympics, held in May, and the annual honors banquet at which awards were presented to individuals and classes having earned sufficient activity points. Faculty moderators: Sister Elaine, O.P., and Miss Margaret Husson.

Playhouse and Choric Cameos

The Playhouse is comprised of students interested in acting and in associated phases of the theater. This year the group presented several one-act plays directed by student members. "Jeanne d'Arc," a choric drama by Marguerite Cleary, was the major Playhouse production of 1953. The dramatic intensity of the trial scene was deepened by the use of a speaking choir, the Choric Cameos.

The Playhouse and the Choric Cameos are under the direction of Sister Grace Alma, O.P. Emma Grady is Chairman of the Playhouse, Shirley Hodge is Assistant Chairman.

Tara Singers

It is the aim of the Tara Singers to bring to others the joy they derive from participation in group singing, at the same time strengthening their own appreciation of the language of music.

No Barry program is complete without a few selections from the Singers. Their performances are a source of pleasure for campus groups as well as for civic and community groups in Miami and other nearby places. The Tara chorus is under the direction of Sister Maura, O.P.

The String Ensemble (not pictured) is also frequently called upon to provide entertainment. Members are Patricia Sandre, Penelope Estabrook, Caroline Childs and Suzanne Curry. Sister Thomas Gertrude, O.P., directs the group.
