T minus four years and counting.
All systems go.

Our Gemini '65, manned by Joanne Rask, Patsy Percival, Karen Swenk, Denise Vanderwerff and Camille Porreca, was hoisted onto the launch pad on September 20, 1961. Technicians Joyce Tepley, Angela de Laura, Ann Hamilton and Lois McCleskey participated in the White Room while the countdown continued.

The crew kept busy at ground site . . . a 'Roaring' class day . . . entertainment by 'The Uncalled Four' . . . Glamour time with Judy Ryan . . . discussion, discussion, discussion over Lord of the Flies . . . a proposed but defeated honor system . . . the 'spook house' at the Florida Garden Carnival . . . the first annual Day Student sponsored Father-Daughter Social . . . third place on Olympics Day . . . Lucille Moss and Jean Stewart in Royal Gambit . . . planting of the monkey tree by inexperienced green thumbs . . . investiture.

In the block house tension mounted.

T minus three and one-half and holding. One relay operator ordered pizzas for the counsellors' party — wrong date. Error corrected, countdown resumed. Important calories gathered at Calagora were stopped by the Safflower diet pills. Nightly jam sessions complete with guitar . . . " . . . more days 'til we get out," was the cry of the restless natives as summer vacation held the countown for three months.

history

T minus three and counting.

Astronauts Kathy Sloan, Joanne Rask, Johanna Duzy, Patsy Percival and Ann Hamilton climbed aboard. Seats on SC ship were occupied by Liz Jordan, Lois McCleskey, and Joyce Tepley. Day hops chose to have a representative council with Sharon Dowdle, VP, giving the signals.

"A-OK" was the word on our new students—the Biscayne boys—as they attended classes on Barry's campus . . . The Cuban Crisis interfered with communications . . . hold.

T minus two and one-half . . . countdown resumed.

The crew were ecstatic over Thompson Hall . . . beautifully decored and air-conditioned . . . Flight plan was checked by Johanna Duzy, Queen for a Day; Julie Kenney, cub editor of Angelicus; and Sue Edelen and Maureen Ward, co-chairmen of a Southern Minstrel class day! Miami and Daytona audiences received Lucille Moss as Annie Sullivan in "The Miracle Worker" with a standard ticker-tape parade . . . Physically fit, Madge Popovich and Kay Bernard, survived the fifty mile hike while 28 lagged behind . . . And recovery ship the S.S. Florida docked in Nassau for Easter.

Olympics Day paved the way to blast-off as the first place position was achieved . . . new Block House proved compatible . . . yet a summer hold was needed for repairs in the capsule.

T minus two and counting

The crew tapped their feet, clapped hands, and raised voices in folk songs with Kathy Sloan, Maureen Ward, Johanna Duzy and Sandi Davis, at the first Hootenanny held within the testing area.

New commanding officers chosen to head the project were Sharon Dowdle, Joanne Rask, Frances Shevenell, Jean Andreani, and Kathy Nemeth. Official representatives to SC were Johanna Duzy and Kathy Sloan.

Reorganization was at its peak as Julie Kenney and Mary Wich revised the Student Guide . . . and Lois McClesky, Janet Butler, and Sandy Norberg wrote the class by-laws.

Progress halted in November 22. Grief-stricken the crew mourned with the world as President Kennedy was shot down by an assassin's bullet. Other national issues hit home as the Human Rights Seminar was presented at the base.

Instructions were given through the Motherhood Conferences . . . entertainment at its height with the Clebanoff Strings . . . Burglars in the basement were halted by the station MP's . . . Class day in keeping with the spirit of Christmas . . . Day Student corsage party . . . square dance . . . and fire drills.

The green light glared as second semester heralded two student productions: "One With The Flame" (directed by Jean Stewart), and "The Farce of Master Pierre Pathelin" (by Lucille Moss). Second Olympics day victory gave computers new data as "Jamaican Farewell" put the countdown ahead of schedule.

T minus one and counting

Anxious moments heightened as the final phase began. Preparations put Sharon Dowdle, Lois McCleskey, Denise Vanderwerff, Jean Andreani, Kathy Rotolo, Madge Popovich and Fran Shevenell in the cockpit.

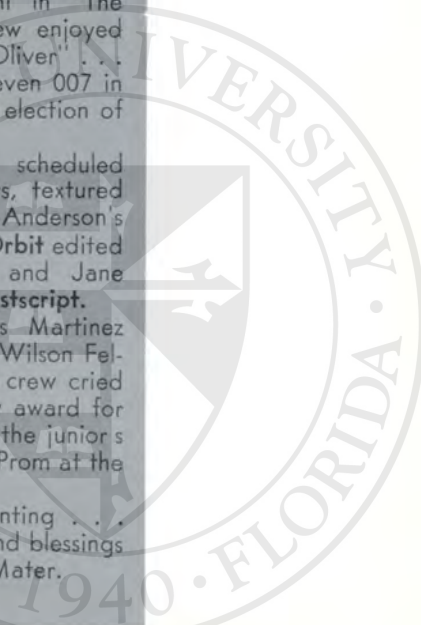

Gathering officials at the launch site were "Who's Who Among Students In American Colleges and Universities" members: Jean Andreani, Jane Counihan, Sharon Dowdle, Johanna Duzy, Regina Grimek, Elizabeth Jordan, Nancy Kopcsik, Evette Lamka, Lois McCleskey, Lourdes Martinez, Ingrid Mehrman, Sylvia Mennell, Lucille Moss, Patricia Percival, Joanne Rask, Jean Stewart, Joyce Tepley and Mary Catherine Wich.

Pre-gala celebrations were festive as the U. of M. Honor Guard saluted Queen Johanna Duzy and her court, Shirley Colmenares, Regina Grimek, Patricia Percival and Nancy Kopcsik . . . unique platforms pitted Lulu Bird Jackson against Prudence Holywater . . . for the last time on stage were Lucille Moss in "Trojan Women", Jean Stewart in "Trojan Women" and "Quality Street", and Marianne Bianchi in "The Sound of Music" . . . the crew enjoyed "Becket" . . . "Hamlet" . . . "Oliver" . . . The National Players . . . and even 007 in his suspense films . . . and the election of LBJ.

Senior technicians finished scheduled projects . . . Mary Ann Powers, textured relief sculpture . . . Ilona Anderson's metalwork vigil-light stand . . . Orbit edited by Sister Thomas Catherine and Jane Counihan . . . and even the Postscript.

Up the ramp went Lourdes Martinez when she received a Woodrow Wilson Fellowship . . . "cum plaque" the crew cried as they won the Olympic Day award for the third consecutive year . . . the juniors honored the crew with a Senior Prom at the Deauville . . .

T minus one week and counting . . . Roses and Candles . . . hoods and blessings . . . recitals . . . our last Alma Mater. Lift off.
