Dean of Students

A black and white photograph of a building with a prominent tall, square tower. The building has several windows and is partially obscured by palm trees in the foreground. The sky is cloudy. The text is overlaid on the left side of the image.

The past is but the beginning of the beginning, and all that is and has been is but the twilight of the dawn. A day will come when beings who are not latent in our thoughts and hidden in our loins . . .
shall laugh and reach out their hands amid the stars.

(H.G. Wells)

DEDICATION

For those to whom much is given much is required. And when at some future date the high count of history sits in judgment on each of us, recording whether in our life span of service we fulfilled our responsibilities to the state, our success or failure, in whatever office we hold, will be measured by the answers to four questions:

First, were we truly men of courage . . . ?

Second, were we truly men of judgment . . . ?

Third, were we truly men of integrity . . . ?

Finally, were we truly men of dedication . . . ?

John F. Kennedy

For those to whom the betterment of mankind is placed above personal endeavors,

THE CLASS OF 1970

dedicates

But Miss Klee never taught me to swim!

Eat more cake, gang!

Let's do Chuck!

Will the real J. Bod please stand up!

If I have to go through any more of these parties!

Own up to this!

Class, man!

"... and there will be no two-piece bathing suits allowed."

Will you stop looking at my cards!

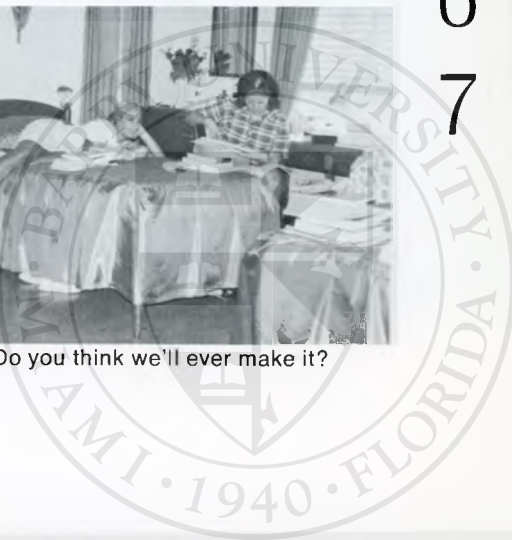

Was it really that big?

Do you think we'll ever make it?

Maturity is marvelous.
It gives us the whole picture — the larger implications of those heart-bound moments
when we laughed . . .
or cried . . .
or were proud.
Olympics Day, when we battled for possession of that plaque . . .
the lessons we learned about winning and losing.
We were proud of our school . . .
and perhaps people caught a glimpse of what we really were
and were doing.
The Rose and Candle Ceremony,
when we shed tears —
for ourselves, really,
because by then we knew we were at the end . . .
and the beginning.

Senior Class Song

We've come to set the pace
At our fine Barry C.
We're here and proud to be
The Class of '70.

Oh, we're the class of '70.
The greatest class by far.
We've set our goals to hit the sky,
We're reaching for the stars.

We've come to set the pace
At our fine Barry C.
We're here and proud to be
The Class of '70.

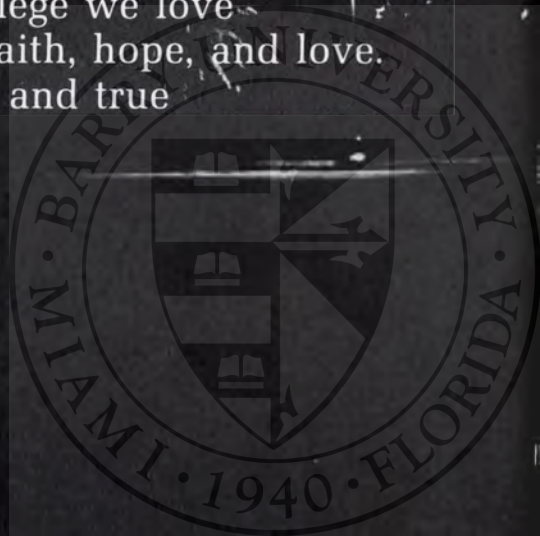

We've got the spirit and the drive
That's bound to see us through.
We're gonna keep that flame alive
In everything we do.

ALMA MATER

We proudly raise our voices
To honor your name.
Dear Alma Mater, truth you proclaim.
We will e'er remember
Our college days
Our hearts will always Echo this praise.
Hail, hail to Barry, college we love
Founded on courage, faith, hope, and love.
We'll be forever, loyal and true
Hail our Alma Mater,
Praise we sing to you.

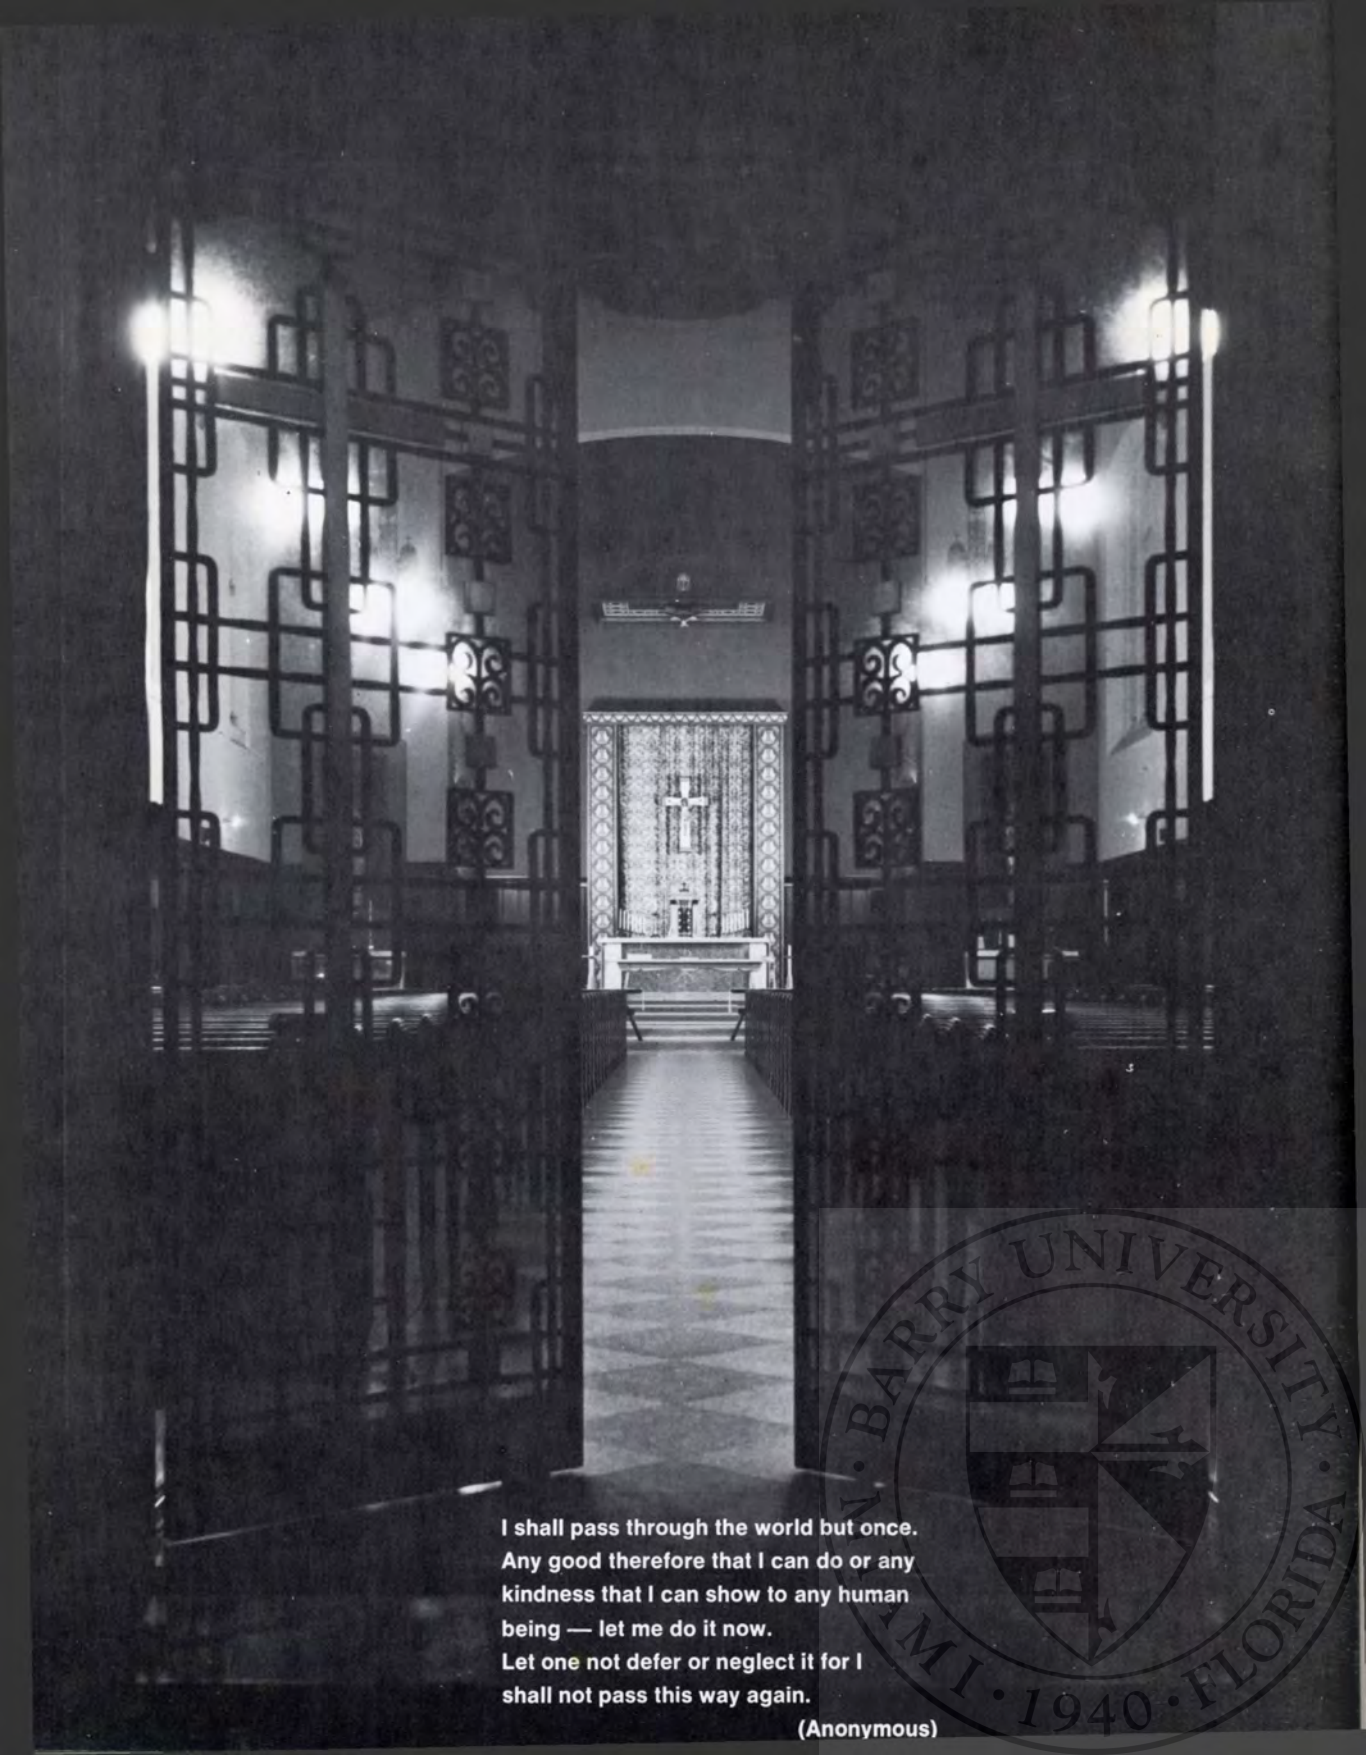

Ha-Ha He-He, we're still on top, you see
And there we'll stay till skies are gray
And cats can say, "God save the queen."
Ha-Ha He-He, it's carefree we will be
And if anyone knows a thing or two,
it's we, we, we!!

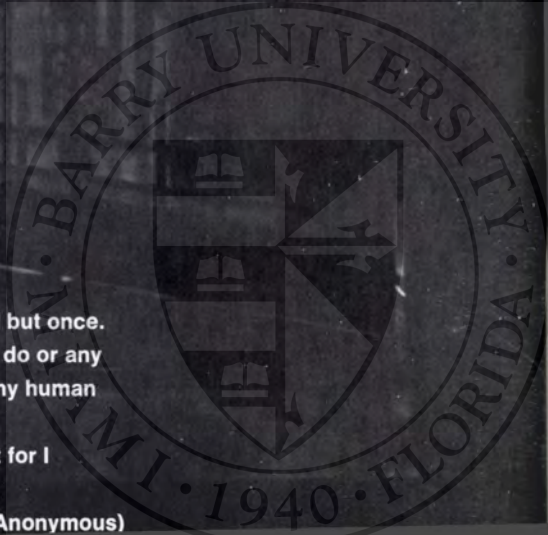

Oh, the Senior Class are rippers,

You know you cannot trip us;
We'll be on top for evermore, more.
Don't you fret with us, my dear,
We're too wise for all our years —
Dear old class we all adore —
She's a daisy, she's a daisy,
She's a rarin', tearin' corker!!

I shall pass through the world but once.
Any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being — let me do it now.
Let one not defer or neglect it for I shall not pass this way again.
