Morning Of Your Life*

Dear of Students

The moments that accumulate into four years of college, flash-back, like still-life pictures, on the morning of your life.

DEDICATION...

The class of 1971 dedicates its memory book to a dream; with the hope that the classes that follow us will dedicate their lives to it.

It is something that cannot be pictured. It is even difficult to define. It is abstract, and yet we all have an understanding of its implications.

We, the class of 1971, dedicate this account of our college years to the ideal of universal peace, and hope that we can, in some small way, contribute to its realization in our life-time.

CLASS SONG

Up, Up with Seniors
Stay together wherever we are,
Up, Up with Seniors
For united we'll go far.

We'll show friendship and sow friendship and hardships we will share
and we'll have a lot less people to worry about, and lot more Seniors who care.

We met on Barry Campus in our Freshmen year, it was 1967 and college we did fear, but now we are united and finally on our way striving ever onward toward graduation day.

Up, Up with Seniors,
Stay together wherever we are,
Up, Up with Seniors
For united we'll go far . . .

The simple truth is that memory is not nearly so trustworthy as we think.
No, it's a compound of what life really was and what now we wish it could be.

ALMA MATER

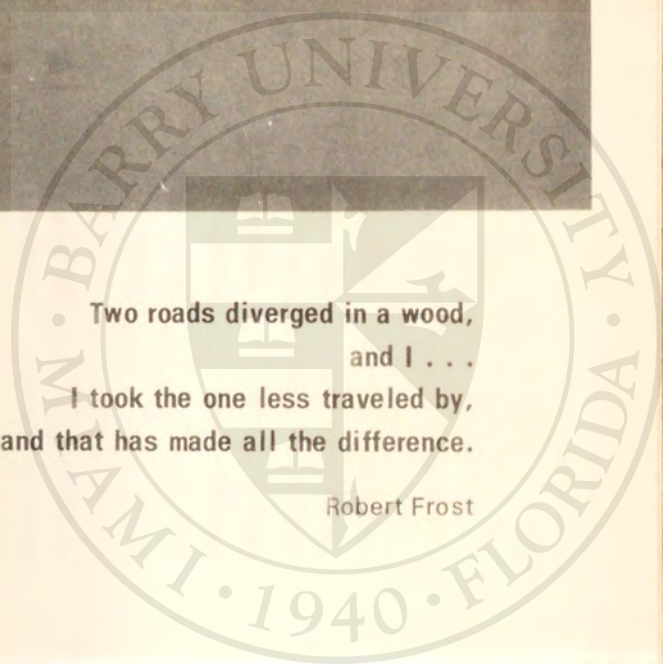

We proudly raise our voices
To honor your name.
Dear Alma Mater, truth you proclaim.
We will e'er remember
Our college days
Our hearts will always Echo this praise.
Hail, hail to Barry, college we love
Founded on courage, faith, hope, and love.
We'll be forever, loyal and true
Hail our Alma Mater,
Praise we sing to you.

Two roads diverged in a wood,
and I . . .
I took the one less traveled by,
and that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

Ha-Ha He-He, we're still on top, you see
And there we'll stay till skies are gray
And cats can say, "God save the queen."
Ha-Ha He-He, it's carefree we will be
And if anyone knows a thing or two, it's we, we, we!
Oh, the Senior Class are rippers,
You know you cannot trip us;
we'll be on top for evermore, more.
Don't you fret with us, my dear,
We're too wise for all our years,
Dear old class we all adore —
She's a daisy, she's a daisy,
She's a rarin', tearin' corker!!
