

CHANGES

1968 - 1972

sit by my side come as close as the air share in a memory of gray and wonder in my words and dream about the pictures that i play

of changes . . .

green leaves of summer turn red in the fall to brown and to yellow they fade and then they have to lie trapped within the circle time parade of change . . .

dreams of my young years grow warm in my mind visions of shadows they shine till one day i return and find they were the victims of the vine
of changes . . .

the world's spinning madly it drifts in the dark swings through a hollow of haze a race around the stars fury through a universe ablaze with changes . . .

moments of magic will glow in the dark all fears of the forest are gone till when the morning breaks they're swept away by golden drops of dawn

of changes

There are some qualities meant to endure the instability of change:

- a faith and trust in one's Creator;
- a deep and personal concern for each individual one meets;
- a dauntless energy which compels one to accomplishments far beyond expected goals;
- a cheerfulness which overcomes the disappointments of human living and which radiates joy in a perennial smile;
- a pervasive love which guides every action of every day of one's life.

We have been fortunate to witness a life in which these qualities have been paramount. With gratitude and fondness

IN MEMORIAM

Helena Casteleiro

March 7, 1950 – March 20, 1971

The angry waves thrash the shore
Testing the strength of the sands,
While in the calm depths
Of a protecting sea
Lay a single pearl
That had once been
A struggling grain of sand.

Education does not mean teaching people what they do not know.... It is a painful, continual and difficult work to be done by kindness, by watching, by warning, by precept, and by praise, but above all—by example.

Ruskin

Cor Jesu Chapel

The things taught in schools and colleges are not an education, but the means of education.

Emerson

Monsignor William Barry
Memorial Library

Is this then life?
A past that has gone and left no trace,
A present, pursuing the past?
Or a future, without meaning, save when it is present and past?
Shall all that is joy in our hearts
And all that saddens our spirit
Vanish ere we know their fruits?

Kahlil Gibran

Main Entrance

Education commences at the mother's knee, and every word spoken within the hearsay of little children tends towards the formation of character.

ALMA MATER

We proudly raise our voices
To honor your name.
Dear Alma Mater, truth you proclaim.
We will e'er remember
Our college days
Our hearts will always Echo this praise.
Hail, hail to Barry, college we love
Founded on courage, faith, hope, and love.
We'll be forever, loyal and true
Hail our Alma Mater,
Praise we sing to you.

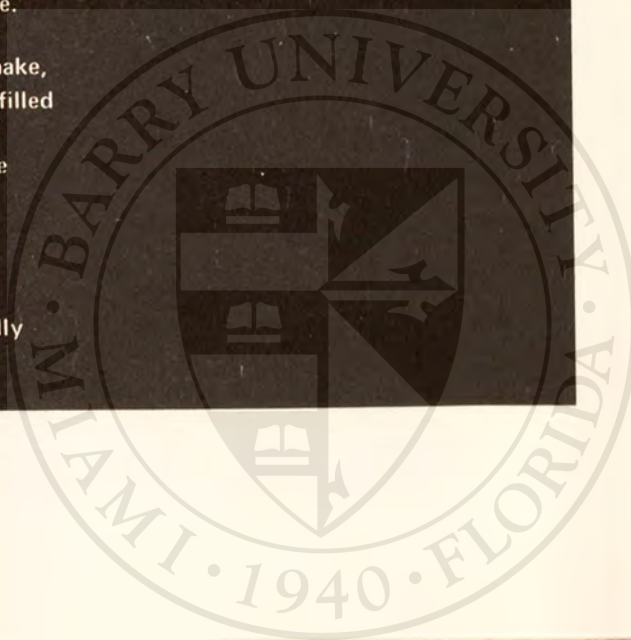

SENIOR CLASS SONG

Consider yourself at home;
Consider yourself part of the family.
No matter how far we roam,
As Seniors, we'll cherish our memories.

Consider yourself at home;
Consider yourself part of the family.
There isn't alot to spare —
Who cares? Whatever we've got we share.

The records we break, the friends we make,
The spirit we build, will at Barry be fulfilled
If it should chance to be we should see Some harder days, we, the Seniors'll see it through.

We consider ourselves the best;
We're better than all the rest.
You'll recognize our spirit which is really true —
We're the class of '72! Yeah!

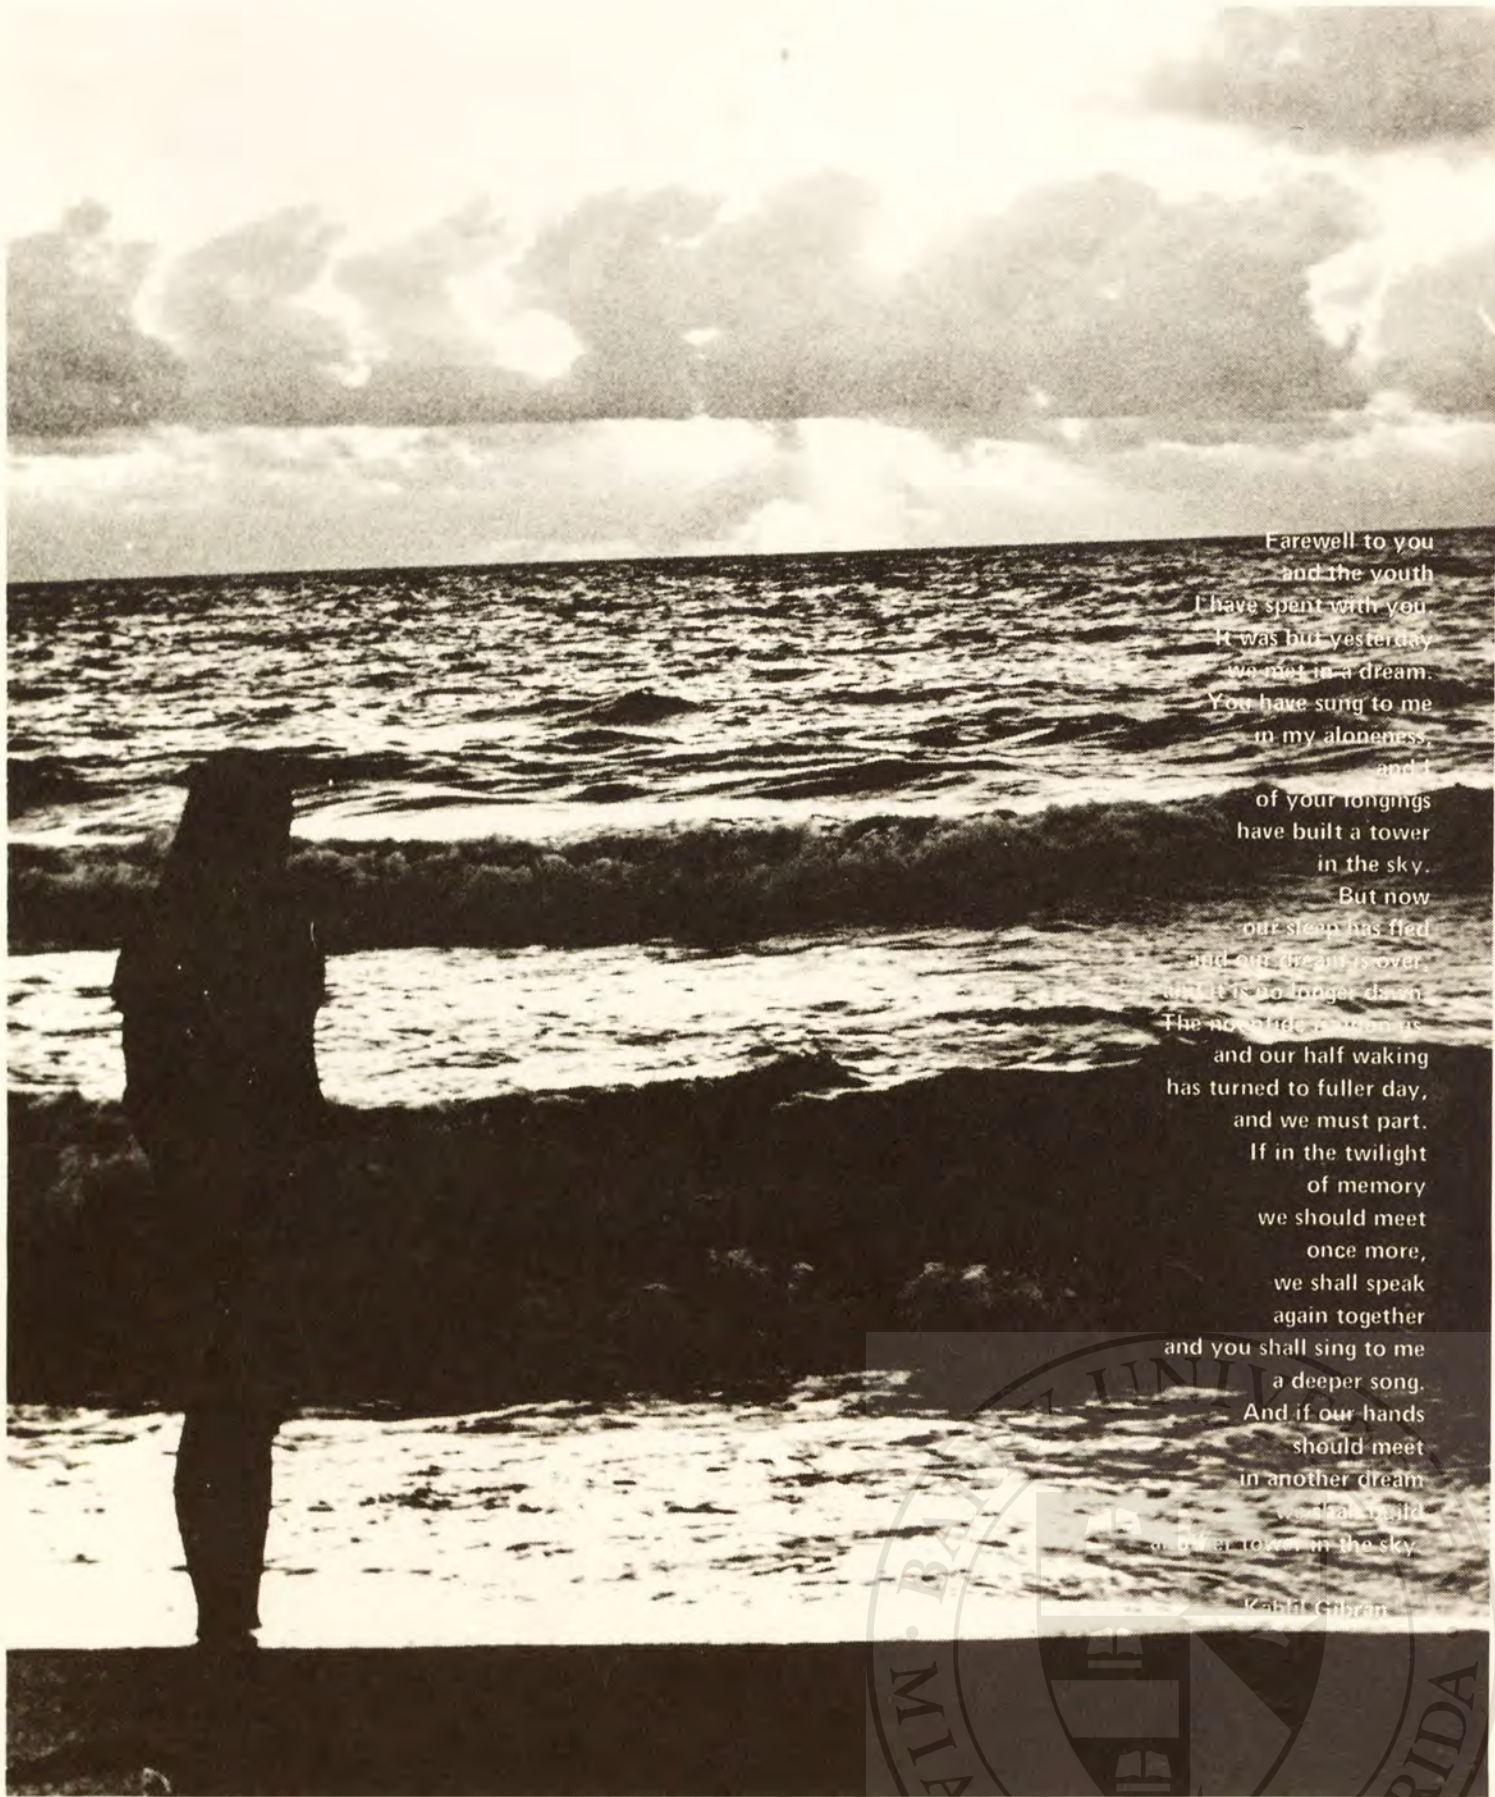

Ha-Ha! He-He! We're still to top, you see
And there we'll stay till skies are gray
And Cats can say, "God save the queen."
Ha-Ha! He-He! It's carefree we will be
And if anyone knows a thing or two, it's we, we, we!!!
Oh, the Senior Class are rippers,
You know you cannot trip us;
We'll be on top forever more, more.
Don't you fret for us, my dear,
We're too wise for all our years.
Dear old class we all adore
She's a daisy, she's a daisy
She's a rarin', tearin' corker

THE STAFF

Farewell to you and the youth
I have spent with you
It was but yesterday
we met in a dream.
You have sung to me
in my aloneness, and I
of your longings have built a tower
in the sky.
But now
our sleep has fled and our dream is over,
and it is no longer dawn.
The night is now as and our half waking has turned to fuller day,
and we must part.
If in the twilight of memory
we should meet once more,
we shall speak
again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.
And if our hands should meet in another dream we shall build a tower in the sky.

Kahlil Gibran
